Requests that the Concessions sanctioned in G.O. dated 29.12.41 be extended to Mr. K. Somasundaram Iyer, Demonstrator, Medical College, who has joined the Emergency Commission in the I.M.S. with a liability to serve abroad.

M 1) Kinds of service deemed to be war service are detailed in G.O. dated 29/12/41. The Emergency Commission is not one among these. But the officer fulfils the condition - Viz liability to serve abroad.

L The O.M. dated 6/3/44 has laid down that all the Concessions referred to in G.O. dt 29.12.41, are allowed only to those who enrol themselves as 'Combatants' for service of any kind abroad with a mobilized unit or for service in India with a liability to serve abroad, if required & that in other cases the concessions, other than the grant of furlough pay, alone are admissible. In the light of this later O.M. issued in the matter, it would appear doubtful whether Mr Somasundaram Iyer is entitled to furlough pay, plus the pensionary allowances of Army rank, tho' his lien could be perhaps be retained in the University. If the lien is retained, the question then arises as to how the period of absence
